

A Zoom talk with US Consul General Sean O'Neill

Presenter: Consul General Sean O'Neil

Date: June 15

Time: 10:30 AM - noon

Free

Please join us for a free zoom talk with US Consul General Sean O'Neill.

He will discuss the history and scope of the US Consulate's work in Northern Thailand since 1950 including consular services, security, prosperity, environment, health and cultural exchanges.

Additionally there will be time for questions.

Sean K. O'Neill

A native New Yorker, Sean O'Neill most recently served as a legislative fellow on the staff of the Chairman of the U.S. House of Representatives Committee on Foreign Affairs in the 114th and 115th Congresses. Sean previously served at the U.S. Consulate General Hong Kong as Political Unit Chief; at Embassy Kabul managing the work of America's civilian-military field platforms throughout Afghanistan; and as the Political-Military Unit Chief in Bangkok. Earlier in his Foreign Service career, Sean served as a political officer in Burma, consular officer in Bangladesh and Pakistan, and a Watch officer in the Department of State's Operations Center.

Sean received a BA from Tulane University and a JD from Fordham University's School of Law. He was capital markets attorney in New York and Tokyo before joining the Foreign Service in the wake of 9/11. Sean is joined in Chiang Mai by his wife Sachiyo.