

From Crop to Cup

An Excursion to Lanna Coffee

Find out how your coffee goes from being a “cherry” growing on a tree to a cup of your favorite brew. We begin this excursion by visiting the Integrated Tribal Development Foundation warehouse and drying shed in Mae Jo, where we will observe the process of pulping, drying, hulling, and grading the coffee beans.

We then move to San Phi Sua where Lanna Coffee has its roaster and coffee shop. Transportation and a cup of coffee of your choice are included!
