

Calling All Writers!

Chiang Mai Creative Writing Group with Saranit Vongkiatkajorn

Join us for a writer's meetup at the Lifelong Learning Payap Center. This is a chance for writers of all levels to come together, share their work, and get feedback from each other. Please print copies of the work you would like feedback on for the group. The piece should be no longer than 2,500 words. The number of copies should be equal to the RSVPs for each session. Each piece can be read aloud to the group. Then, we get into discussion and feedback of the presented piece. This is a great opportunity to connect with other writers, get feedback on your work, and learn from each other. No experience is necessary. All writers are welcome!

What to expect:

- A relaxed and informal atmosphere where writers can feel comfortable sharing their work
- A supportive community of writers who are eager to give and receive feedback
- An opportunity to learn from other writers and improve your own writing skills

What to bring:

- Copies of a piece of writing that you would like to share with the group. All copies will be returned to the writer after discussion/critique
- A notebook and pen to take notes
- A willingness to give and receive feedback
